REPORT ON FLASH MOB PRACTICE BY THE SPARTANS DANCE CLUB

Venue: College Quadrangle

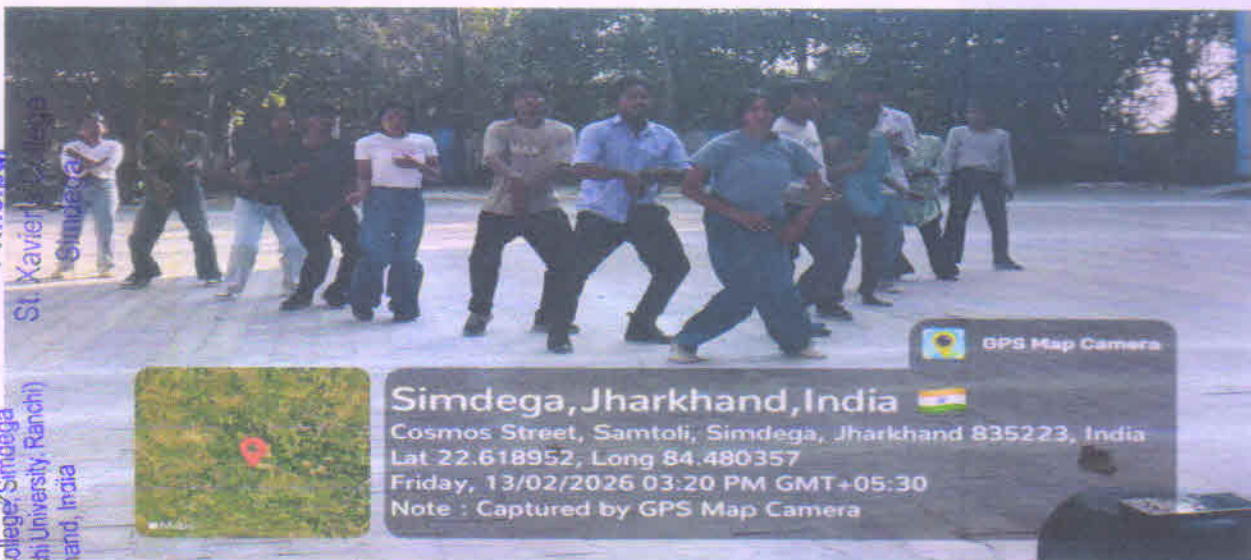

Time: 3.15pm

Date: 13/2/2026

The Spartans Dance Club organized a practice session for the upcoming Flash Mob on 13th February 2026 in the college quadrangle. The Flash Mob is scheduled to be performed on 19th February 2026 during the official inauguration of the club.

The practice session witnessed enthusiastic participation from all the members of the Spartans. The rehearsals began in the afternoon, where the team worked diligently on synchronization, expressions, formations, and stage presence. The quadrangle provided an open and energetic environment, allowing members to simulate the actual performance setting.

The event promises to be a significant milestone in the journey of the Spartans Dance Club.

Dance Club

The primary objective of organizing the Flash Mob is to mark the formal inauguration of the Spartans Dance Club and to create awareness among students about the club's vision and activities. Through this vibrant and dynamic performance, the club aims to encourage more students to join and showcase their talent in dance.

The leaders of the club, Shivam Nayak and Tamanna Dungdung, guided the team with dedication and ensured discipline throughout the practice. They motivated members to give their best and emphasized teamwork and coordination.

The practice session was productive and successful. The members displayed great enthusiasm and commitment, reflecting the strong spirit of the Spartans. The upcoming Flash Mob is expected to be an energetic and engaging performance that will leave a lasting impression on the audience and inspire students to become a part of the club.
