among students was highlighted. The members also discussed encouraging students to actively participate in the club's activities.

Agenda 2: Screening of Short Movies

The members discussed organising short-film screenings to provide students with opportunities to explore creative storytelling, filmmaking techniques, and different cinematic perspectives. It was proposed that suitable short films be selected for screening, followed by discussions and feedback sessions.

Agenda 3: Screening of Documentary Films

The meeting discussed the screening of documentary films on educational, social, environmental, historical, and cultural themes. The initiative aims to broaden students' perspectives and encourage awareness of important social issues through cinema.

Agenda 4: Organisation of a Film Festival

The members discussed the possibility of organising a Film Festival to showcase students' creativity and promote cinematic expression. The proposed festival may include short films, documentaries, and other suitable film presentations. The need for proper planning, scheduling, student participation, and coordination was also discussed.
