REPORT ON PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB MEETING

Date: 15/10/26
Time: 3:00 P.M
Venue: Library

Agendas:

1. Budget
2. Activities to be conducted
3. Promotion among students of the club.
4. A tentative plan for student's Orientation for the club

Minutes of the Meeting

1. The meeting commenced with a discussion on the proposed budget for the effective functioning of the Photography Club. The members discussed the financial requirements for organising various activities, competitions, workshops and exhibitions.

2. The members discussed various activities to be conducted during the academic session, including photography competitions, photography walks, theme-based assignments, photo exhibitions and workshops on basic photography techniques.

3. The importance of promoting the Photography Club among students was emphasised. It was suggested that students from all departments and semesters be encouraged to join the club and participate in its activities, irrespective of their prior experience or possession of professional photography equipment.

4. A tentative plan for organising an orientation programme for interested students was discussed. The programme would introduce students to the objectives, functioning, membership process and proposed activities of the club.

5. The members agreed to encourage active student participation and provide opportunities for students to showcase their creativity, photographic skills and perspectives through various club activities.
